

2010 Auction Preview

There will be plenty of great items to bid on at the 2010 Auction! Below is a list of the amazing Live Auction items that will be available. Don't forget that there will also be hundreds of silent auction items available for your bidding pleasure!

This is Puppy Love, Partner!

The Bichon Shih Tzu mix is one of the most popular mixed breeds available today. Its small size makes it ideal for city dwellers, and its tendency not to shed means it is the perfect pet for allergy and asthma sufferers. They are very playful, affectionate, and gentle mannered, naturally sociable and love to be a part of a busy family. These little pups are very sociable with other pets and very obedient with children. What a cute little Teddy Bear!

These Are NOT Rhinestones, Cowboy!

This stunning 14K White Gold Diamond Cross pendant consists of 1.45 carats total weight in G to H color and SI1/SI2 clarity quality diamonds. The cross is on a 14kt 18 inch white gold chain. It's a real sparkler!

Mmmmmmm mmmmmmm good!

Spend a week in a beautiful home in the Blue Ridge Mountains near Brevard, NC. The house is located on a five-acre lot on the top of Slick Rock Mountain. Guests have access to a small lake with sections roped off for swimming, fishing and canoeing. There are hiking trails and several caves on the property. You can also spend a day on one of the many public golf courses close by.

This area of Western NC is known for having more than 250 waterfalls, many of which are visible from the road or by short hike. One highlight is Sliding Rock, which is a natural water slide with a gentle slope that is about 60 feet long, ending in a large, deep pool at the bottom. Flat Rock, which is 20 miles away, offers many summer activities such as outdoor theater, music, festivals, etc. The house can accommodate a large family or group of friends. The house is not available Memorial Day weekend or the month of July.
